

DOINGS OF THE WEEK IN SOCIETY OF ARIZONA'S CAPITAL

SOCIETY TAKES ON GAYER TONE

A gayer week since the war has not been recorded than the seven days past. Every day registered several events among the smart set and the juniors had a particularly jolly vacation, a number of pretentious affairs making the holiday week a bright and happy one. If anything, the New Year season will be even more strenuous to the pleasure devotee, who will have difficulty in meeting all the engagements accepted for the week. The calendar records some half dozen events for New Year's eve, among which will be the dance at the Country club, where society has been wont to gather for a number of years to watch the old year out and welcome in the new. The dance will be preceded by many smart dinners and other dancers will join the Country club contingent later in the evening. On New Year's day tea will be served at the club, the bachelor members acting as hosts.

Keep Open House
Christmas Night

Notable among the many events of holiday week was the affair given by Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lewis, who kept open house on Christmas night. Elaborate Christmas decorations lent the holiday atmosphere, and the delightful informality that always marks the events given by the favorite hosts added to the enjoyment. Among the many there were Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Beckman Lorillard, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McArthur.

Good Resolutions

People are beginning to think of the good resolutions they are going to make. If they are wise they will not make any that are too difficult to keep, nor will they make resolutions that profit them nothing. A good resolution faithfully lived up to strengthens the will, and a resolution to obey all the laws of hygiene will strengthen the body.

Decayed teeth, with all the resultant putrid matter and germ laden saliva entering the stomach destroy the foundation of personal hygiene. Therefore resolve to keep your teeth in order, and the resolution will lead to good health and a prosperous 1919. My office is the institution that will help you carry out this 1919 resolution. Make your appointment for the first working day in 1919.
